Looking Ahead

October 1-November 1 — Volunteer Training

Friday, October 1-Monday, November 1: Various sessions (sign up by September 24)

CASA of Brown County recruits, trains, and supports volunteers ages 21 and older to advocate on behalf of abused and neglected children under court protection until they are safe and thriving in permanent homes. Last year, 133 CASA volunteers advocated for 232 children in our community. If you'd like to help change a child's story and make a lasting impact, pre-service training begins in October and will be a blend of virtual and in-person sessions. Please visit www.casabc.org/volunteer to learn more or contact Taylor Connell with questions at 920-437-2272 or taylor@casabc.org.

Ongoing Opportunities

Grief Group Nights

Monthly beginning in October, 5:30-8:00 p.m.

Hope's House is seeking volunteers ages 18 and older to help kids ages 4-18 with projects and help facilitate grief groups. Training will be provided for all volunteers, and a background check will be done. Contact Gina Peotter at 920-737-3202 or ginapeotter@hopeshousewi.com.

Book Sorters

Flexible schedule during the Central Library's operating hours

The Friends of the Brown County Library needs volunteers ages 16 and older to help sort books for its semi-annual Big Book Sale. This is a year-round opportunity that entails sorting donated and withdrawn books into 40+ categories. Once sorted, books are boxed and moved into stacks (boxes weigh 25-40 lbs). After volunteers finish a three-hour orientation and training (two 90-minute sessions), they commit to volunteering several hours per week at the Central Library in the Friends sorting room. Must be a member of the Friends. Contact Curt Heuer at 920-371-3651 or friendssort@gmail.com.

Guest Experience Volunteers

Flexible shifts, typically a few hours from 8:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. or 4:00-8:00 p.m.

Altrusa House would like volunteers ages 16 and older to perform a variety of fun activities with the goal being to strengthen Altrusa's 'home-like' atmosphere. This position will help enhance the experience of their guests who are going through medical crises. Activities include (but are not limited to) assembling care packages, visiting with guests in common areas, baking cookies and snacks, and distributing 'thinking of you' cards to guests.

Contact Sarah Duginske at 920-884-6677 x2 or sarah@altrusahousegreenbay.org.

Disaster Action Team Members

Various rotating shifts

The American Red Cross invites volunteers ages 18 and older to join now to get trained and gain experience locally so when the time comes, you can deploy to national disasters. Disaster Action Team (DAT) members directly help people affected by events ranging from wildfires to hurricanes by providing food, shelter, essential relief supplies, and hope. You can also provide support 'behind the scenes' with planning, logistics or volunteer management.

Contact Lee Borofka at 920-737-9974 or lee.borofka@redcross.org.

Theater Production Volunteers

Various shifts during the 2021-2022 season

Evergreen Productions has opportunities available in set construction and painting, props, lighting, sound, costuming, and makeup, as well as backstage during the run of the shows. They are willing to train young people in all aspects of theater production, and adult volunteers are needed as well. Each of the upcoming season's shows requires a 6- to 8-week commitment. Rehearsals usually start about two months before show dates, and the performance calendar runs from Sept. 24-May 22. The minimum age is 12 (there will be adult supervision). Contact Ruth Novak at 920-621-7377 or ruth@evergreenproductions.org.

Resale Shoppe Volunteers

Weekdays, 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m., 1:00-4:00 p.m., or 4:00-6:00 p.m. and Saturdays, 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

Unity Hospice Resale Shoppe is looking for volunteers ages 18 and older to accept, clean, and sort donations; price and stage the sales floor; or work the cash register on the sales floor.

Contact Alicia Schram at 920-339-5501 or aschram@unityhospice.org.

Weeding Volunteers

Shifts based on volunteers' availability (requires about 30 minutes per week)

The Allouez Beautification Committee, which purchases and tends the flowers on Webster Avenue, is looking for volunteers ages 14 and older to help make Allouez beautiful. Duties include weeding and maintaining an assigned bed or pot (at a time convenient for you).

Contact Audrey Zigmund at 920-336-0173 or zigtennis@aol.com.

Farmers' Market Volunteers

Wednesdays through September 29: various shifts from 1:00-9:30 p.m.

On Broadway, Inc. is in need of volunteers ages 18 and older to help with setting up and tearing down the market, which includes hanging signs, putting out trash barrels, and setting up tents. Individuals may also help pour and serve beer in the beer tent and help with daily maintenance while the market is happening. Visit www.signupgenius.com/go/508094faba82ea6fd0-farmers to sign up or contact Allie Thut with questions at 920-569-3425 or allie@onbroadway.org.

Social Media Intern Volunteer

Flexible schedule, approximately two hours per week

The Spine Project is looking for an unpaid intern with strong understanding of digital media, including various social media platforms. Duties include: monitoring and posting on blogs, forums, and social networks; online outreach and promotion; creating images for media posts; writing copy to grow social media presence; and utilization of social media to promote events. Contact Dr. Julie Wyss at 920-468-4199 or admin@thespineproject.org.

Information Table Volunteers

Saturdays and Sundays through October, 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

The National Railroad Museum is looking for volunteers ages 16 and older to help staff a lobby information table on weekends. Volunteers will learn about and promote museum programs, and will need to be comfortable talking with guests. Contact Megan Blackburn at 920-437-7623 x124 or mblackburn@nationalrrmuseum.org.

Service Area Coordinator Volunteers

Various shifts

Girl Scouts of the Northwestern Great Lakes is seeking individuals ages 18 and older interested in collaborating with other adult volunteers to plan for and work with specific groups of troops categorized by geographic location. This may include planning badge-earning/fun events for troops, helping manage their cookie program, facilitating social networking with volunteers, and treasurer positions. Girl Scout volunteers help build girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place. Contact Kristin Gallagher at 920-955-3443 or kgallagher@gsnwgl.org.

Meals on Wheels (Homebound Meal) Volunteer Drivers

Flexible weekday shifts, choose the best days for you (meals delivered 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.)

The Aging and Disability Resource Center of Brown County has openings for drivers ages 18 and older to deliver meals to homebound older adults in the Green Bay area. Mileage reimbursement is available. This is an excellent opportunity to give back to your community. The ADRC delivered over 122,000 meals last year with the help of their generous volunteers. Volunteer applications can be found at adrcofbrowncounty.org/. Contact Angela VanAsten at 920-448-4300 or bc.adrc@browncountywi.gov.

Sidewalking Volunteers

Monday-Thursday, various shifts between 10:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.

Exceptional Equestrians is looking for volunteers ages 14 and older to assist during riding sessions. Individuals would start in the role of side walker for a minimum of two weeks. Volunteers with horsemanship experience can complete the horse lead assessment to become horse leaders. Sidewalking duties include: interacting with clients; assisting during mount and dismount; and assisting the client during activities such as grooming the horse, playing games, and other tasks. Training is provided. Contact Molly Kafka at 920-347-3174 or mkafka@exceptionalequestrians.org.

Meal Hero Volunteers

Various days: 4:00-7:30 p.m. (includes clean-up)

Altrusa House is in need of groups of 3-5 people to provide a home-cooked meal for families staying at the home. Volunteers will provide, prepare (onsite or off), serve, and share a meal with the guests. The amount of servings needed depends upon occupancy, and their guest experience manager will coordinate with groups to ensure there is plenty to go around. Volunteers under 17 must have guardian supervision. Contact Sarah Duginske at 920-884-6677 x2 or sarah@altrusahousegreenbay.org.

General Build Volunteers

Wednesdays and Thursdays, 7:45 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

Greater Green Bay Habitat for Humanity would like volunteers ages 16 and older to assist with various general construction projects on build sites under the watchful guidance of crew leaders. No experience is necessary. Volunteers should be willing to learn something new and help build a home with a hard-working, deserving family. Types of building projects include framing, siding, building a garage, drywalling, painting, trim, cabinetry, and more. Contact Julia Drobeck at 920-593-5792 or volunteer@greenbayhabitat.org or jdrobeck@restoregb.org.

Personalized Coaching Volunteers

Schedule depends on clients' availability

Brain Center of Green Bay is in need of volunteers to assist with its coaching program. Medical, social work or nursing backgrounds are preferred. Individuals with experience in caregiving and/or working with individuals with brain disease, disorders or conditions are also encouraged to participate. Coaches will receive training and be connected with a mentor. Contact Christine Vanden Hoogen at 920-393-4084 or chrsvandehoogen@braincentergb.org.

Fundraising Committee Volunteers

Meets once per month

The Art Garage would like volunteers ages 18 and older to serve on their fundraising committee, the purpose of which is to support the executive director in raising funds to meet annual budget needs. The responsibility of the chairperson is to work with the committee and staff to create fundraising events, lead meetings, facilitate discussions, and report to the board. The goals are to increase donor contributions, increase bequests and planned giving, assist in developing fundraising activities and programs, promote partnerships with businesses in the community, explore the need to create a capital campaign as needed, and create an endowment or trust. Contact Tristin St. Mary at 920-448-6800 or tstmary@theartgarage.org.

Food Pantry Distribution Volunteers

Weekdays: 12:30-2:00 p.m.

The Salvation Army of Greater Green Bay would like volunteers ages 16 and older to assist in distributing food pantry items to their guests. This will be done outside in a drive-up fashion. Volunteers will be required to lift, stand, and bend to load groceries into carts and push them out to vehicles. Contact Renee Main at 920-593-2375 or renee.main@usc.salvationarmy.org.

Finance Committee Volunteers

Once per month, 8:00 a.m. on the third Wednesday

Golden House is seeking committee members with experience in banking, financial accounting, treasury management, or financial analysis. Contact Sherrill Revolinski at 920-371-3651 or sherrill@goldenhousegb.org.

Farmer's Market Attendee Clicker Volunteers

Various two-hour Saturday shifts through October

Downtown Green Bay Inc. is looking for several volunteers to help with attendance counting at the Downtown Green Bay Saturday Farmer's Market. This is a critical part of their team and the planning of this event for the future. Click signup.com/client/invitation2/secure/259982596051/false#/invitation to sign up or contact Patti Schevers with questions at 920-617-0023 or patti@downtowngreenbay.com.

Pals Program Volunteers

Various shifts

Brown County Health and Human Services is in need of volunteer mentors ages 18 and older to spend time in a recreational or learning activity with a child, age 3 or older, who has been referred by Brown County Child Protective Services. Mentors help the child adjust to the separation or loss of a parent, enhance their self-esteem and confidence, and help them learn new skills. Matches are invited to attend a fun activity each month that is free of charge. Matches are based on compatibility and can continue for as long as both parties are interested, though it is hoped that volunteers would engage with their Pal for a minimum of one year. Contact Jenna Durkee at 920-448-6023 or jenna.durkee@browncountywi.gov.

Volunteer Drivers

Weekdays: flexible four- to five-hour morning or afternoon shifts

Curative Connections has an urgent need for volunteers ages 18 and older to drive seniors and people with disabilities to and from vital appointments and offer door-to-door assistance as needed. Curative provides vehicles, gas, and insurance. No CDL is required. Volunteers must have a good driving record, and a background check will be performed. Contact Tina Whetung at 920-227-4272 or twhetung@curativeconnections.org.

Café Volunteers

Mondays-Saturdays: two- to four-hour shifts from 7:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.

The Aging and Disability Resource Center's Grounded Café has a variety of volunteer positions available, including cashier, barista, cook, food prep, dishes, and cleaning tables. Contact Jeremy Slusarek at 920-448-4309 or jeremy.slusarek@browncountywi.gov.

Historical Interpreter Volunteers

Various shifts

Heritage Hill is a living history park devoted to the preservation of buildings and artifacts, and the interpretation of history with a focus on the impact on Northeastern Wisconsin and its people. Heritage Hill provides an interactive experience that encourages visitor appreciation of its diverse regional history. They are seeking historical interpreter volunteers ages 18 and older to orally communicate the history of our area to visitors of all ages through stories, activities, and exhibits that connect visitors to their heritage and community. This position is responsible for ensuring visitors have a positive, memorable experience at Heritage Hill in accordance with the park's mission. Contact Kim DeCock at 920-448-5150 or kim@heritagehillgb.org.

Meal Donation and Serving Volunteers

Mondays-Thursdays: 5:00-6:00 p.m.

Freedom House is seeking volunteer groups to donate, prepare, and serve dinner to families staying at the shelter. There are typically approximately 15 adults and 35 children at each meal. Contact Crystal DeCleene at 920-432-4646 or crystaldecleene@freedomhouseministries.org.

Marketing Intern Volunteer

Approximately 10-12 hours per month

The Spine Project would like an unpaid intern who can participate in various stages of print and online marketing campaigns in coordination with their social media team. Brand awareness and donor recognition are key components for this position, and connection and an outgoing personality are crucial for this person's success. Contact Dr. Julie Wyss at 920-468-4199 or admin@thespineproject.org.

Creation/Fixer Technician Volunteers

Flexible shifts

Do you like to repurpose items? Are you crafty? Do you like to fix things? Community Benefit Tree has items that need your TLC (fixing, painting, or repurposing). Contact Heidi Frederickson at 920-422-1919 or heidifrederickson@communitybenefittree.org.

Clean Team or Adopt-a-Block Volunteers

Flexible shifts (minimum commitment of two hours per week)

Downtown Green Bay Inc. & Olde Main Street Inc. invite volunteers to help keep downtown looking great while getting in steps and checking out the new businesses in the districts. Duties include trash pick-up and weeding. Volunteers younger than 14 must be accompanied by an adult. Visit downtowngreenbay.com/business/employment-opportunities for program information. Contact Sally Ebeling at 920-437-1824 or sally@downtowngreenbay.com.

Green Bay Film Festival Volunteers

Flexible schedule, about 1½-3 hours per week

Film Green Bay is seeking volunteer screeners and programmers ages 17 and older. A screener watches submitted films and scores them based on a variety of criteria. These submitted scores help the programmers select which films will be viewed at the festival. Categories include Features, Shorts, Documentaries, Children & Family, Native American, and Wisconsin films. A programmer is a screener willing to extend his or her screening time and attend meetings to determine the films that are chosen for the festival. The time extension may require additional viewing time during the screening period. Contact Caitlin Schuchart at 773-332-2293 or festivaldirector@gbgilmfestival.org.

Volunteer Troop Leaders

Various shifts, minimum time commitment is 2-3 hours per month

Girl Scouts of the Northwestern Great Lakes has opportunities in many different grades and schools in Green Bay and the surrounding area for volunteer troop leaders (ages 18 and older) for fall 2021-summer 2022. These individuals are memory-makers who lead and guide a group of girls through their scouting experience. They take the girls' interests, abilities, and opinions into consideration when planning out their fun. As girls get older, troop leaders guide more than lead, but continue to help girls grow, learn, and do amazing things. Training and planning tools are online, and an engagement coordinator would be available to help along the way. Girl Scout volunteers help build girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place. Contact Kristin Gallagher at 920-955-3443 or kgallagher@gsnwgl.org.

Shelter Volunteers

Various daily shifts from 8:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m.

The Wisconsin Humane Society-Green Bay Campus is looking for help supporting the shelter. They are in need of animal care volunteers, dog walkers, event volunteers, and off-site adoption center volunteers. Individuals as young as 13 may volunteer with an adult; ages 16 and older may volunteer on their own in some positions. Visit www.wihumane.org/volunteer/greenbay to learn more about their program and how to become a volunteer or contact Katie Gut with questions at 920-469-3110 x2117 or kgut@wihumane.org.
