March 28; April 9, 17, and 25 — CASA Volunteer Virtual Information Sessions

Thursdays, March 28 and April 25: 12:00-12:30 p.m.; Tuesday, April 9: 5:30-6:00 p.m.; Wednesday, April 17: 5:30-6:00 p.m.

All it takes is one person. Can you lend a voice and help change a child's story? Volunteers ages 21 and older are invited to join Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Brown County for a virtual information session to learn how. CASA provides a voice for abused and neglected children who are under the legal protection of the court system. Children with a CASA volunteer are more likely to report higher levels of hope, get help with other services, and spend less time living in foster care. From a CASA youth: "She thinks I'm going to be somebody."

Contact Eileen Metzler at 920-393-9771 or eileen@casabc.org.

March 30 — EggStravaganZoo

Saturday, March 30: various shifts between 8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. NEW Zoo & Adventure Park invites volunteers to celebrate spring during EggStravaganZoo. Help supervise candy stations, games, and activities; serve as costume mascots (like the EggStravaganZoo Bunny); and more. Volunteer positions are outdoors, unless otherwise indicated, so please dress for the weather. Event will be held rain or shine. Individuals ages 8-14 must be accompanied by an adult or a chaperone ages 16 or older.
Contact Angela Kawski at 920-662-2405 or volunteer@newzoo.org.

April 13 — Sound the Alarm, Save a Life

Saturday, April 13: 8:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Home fires claim seven lives every day, but having working smoke alarms can cut the risk of death by half. That's why the American Red Cross is rallying volunteers to install free smoke alarms as part of our nationwide Sound the Alarm events. Join them and form teams with existing Red Cross volunteers to install free smoke alarms in the Green Bay area. All installations are appointment-based. Training, tools, and lunch will be provided. Individuals as young as 16 may volunteer with a consent form from their parent or legal guardian and the supervision of an adult. Volunteers may register at <https://bit.ly/42I5Qei> or contact Lee Borofka with questions at 920-737-9974 or lee.borofka@redcross.org. The Red Cross can perform a free fire safety visit and install a free smoke alarm in your home. Visit <https://bit.ly/48nUehV> for more information.

April 15, May 20, and June 17 — Broadway District Evening Trashforce

Mondays, April 15, May 20 and June 17: one-hour shifts each evening

On Broadway, Inc. seeks volunteers to help keep the Broadway District clean by volunteering to pick up trash around the neighborhood. Dinner will be provided. Please comment with any dietary restrictions at the time of sign-up. Supplies, such as gloves, trash bags, and trash grabbers, will be provided. Contact Betsy Sorensen at 920-569-3489 or betsy@onbroadway.org.

April 18 — Trash Bash

Thursday, April 18: 1:00-3:00 p.m.

Downtown Green Bay, Inc. invites volunteers to celebrate Earth Day 2024 a few days early with the Annual Trash Bash. Help pick up the litter in the Downtown and Olde Main Street districts to keep our community looking its best. Meet at Whitney Park for supplies and maps of each clean-up zone. Return when you are finished with your zone to receive some treats and your choice of beverage from The Attic. Contact Jenny VandenLangenberg at 920-676-9363 or jenny@downtowngreenbay.com.

Ongoing Opportunities

Giraffe Feeding Experience

Daily, 10:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and 2:00-4:30 p.m.

NEW Zoo & Adventure Park would like volunteers to assist guests with feeding the giraffes. Individuals must have experience with handling cash and making change. Kids ages 8-15 must be accompanied by a chaperone. Contact Ashley Quealy at 920-662-2419 or ashley.quealy@browncountywi.gov.

Breakfast Servers

Daily (through April 30): 5:30-7:30 a.m.

St. John's Ministries is actively seeking individuals to join their breakfast team and contribute to their volunteer efforts. What does breakfast serving entail? Use the supplies they have on hand to serve hot and continental breakfast to guests. Some breakfast volunteers prefer to prepare and bring their own already prepared foods in to serve, though that is not required. Possibilities include scrambled/hard boiled eggs, oatmeal, breakfast sandwiches, pancakes, as well as their cold cereals, oatmeal packets, pastries, etc. This key role also provides an opportunity to build rapport with each guest who comes through the food line. Building rapport is a critical part of the mission of St. John's. Through building rapport, lives are changed. Here is what current volunteer Shari says about why she enjoys this role: "I love serving breakfast because it gives me a chance to start someone's day on a positive note. I want to serve a breakfast that sets the guest up to have a great day. A fresh breakfast is a way of showing people they are important to me." Contact Brooke Graham at 920-301-0909 or bgraham@stjohnsgreenbay.org.

Farmers' Market on Broadway

Wednesdays from May 22-September 25; shifts through August: 2:45-5:30 p.m. (beverage tent first shift), 5:15-8:00 p.m. (beverage tent second shift), 3:00-8:00 p.m. (info booth), 12:30-3:00 p.m. (set-up crew), and 7:45-9:30 p.m. (tear-down crew)

On Broadway, Inc. would like volunteers for a variety of roles for this weekly event:

- Beverage tent - Serve and pour alcoholic beverages; requires cash- and card-handling.
- Info booth - Sit under the info booth tent and assist marketgoers, hand out maps, and help with other general information.
- Set-up crew - Assist with set-up of the market (tents, garbage cans, banners, etc.); this is outdoor work and lifting is required.
- Tear-down crew - Assist with clean-up of the market (garbage, tents, banners, etc.); this is outdoor work and lifting is required.

Must be 18 or older for beverage tent shifts. Contact Betsy Sorensen at 920-569-3489 or betsy@onbroadway.org.

Pet Therapy

Various days, half-hour visits

New Day Women's Center is seeking calm, well-trained, friendly dogs for pet therapy at their facility. There are many physical and mental health benefits for their guests when they connect and interact with animals. No certification or license is needed for pet therapy dogs.

Contact Angela Cheslock at 920-857-2025 or acheslock@newdaywc.org.

Friendly Hospice Visitors

Flexible shifts; volunteers typically visit with a patient once a week for 1-2 hours

Volunteers are the HEART of hospice. Aurora Home Hospice is looking for kind, caring individuals ages 18 and older to provide companionship to their patients in end-of-life care. Patients are in care facilities and homes throughout the Green Bay area, so there is likely a person in need conveniently close to you. A visit brightens their day and lightens your heart.

As a hospice visit volunteer you may:

- Provide active listening and a caring presence
- Read a book or listen to their favorite music
- Play games or take walks as they are able
- Participate in life review or just hear their stories
- Be present while a caregiver takes a break
- Remember special days
- Laugh with them
- Or just hold their hand while they rest

Training is provided so you can be confident and comfortable in doing an excellent job as a companion volunteer. No patient cares are involved. You will develop soft social skills such as active listening and empathetic companionship in a health care setting. This can reflect well on a resume. Safety is the top priority, so a background check and health history will need to be completed. All Aurora employees, including volunteers, are required to be vaccinated for flu during flu season. If you are interested in doing something that will give back and be a heart-expanding experience, contact Lexi Pirman at 920-627-5306 or lexi.pirman@aah.org.

Donation Processors

Weekdays, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. and 12:00-4:00 p.m.

Community Benefit Tree is looking for volunteers ages 13 and older to help with checking, cleaning, and marking store codes on donated items, then placing and organizing items in the thrift store. Volunteers are also needed to help check shoppers out. Contact Kim Van Berkel at 920-422-1919 or office@communitybenefittree.org.

Volunteer Drivers

7:30-11:30 a.m. or 12:30-4:30 p.m.

Curative Connections' affordable door-to-door transportation service for adults 60 years and older and people with disabilities has been around for over 50 years, helping thousands of people in our community remain independent. The success of their service has been largely dependent on its volunteer drivers. Volunteers ages 18 and older are needed to help them continue to make a difference in our community by assisting those in need lead a more fulfilling and self-sufficient lifestyle. Contact Brenda Jordan at 920-593-3535 or bjordan@curativeconnections.org.

Baseball Game Assistants

Various shifts before and during home games

Blue Ribbons Baseball would like volunteers to assist in several areas: field prep (about three hours before game time), help with batting practice, concessions, grilling, ticketing, on-field entertainment, and more. Volunteers who are minors must be accompanied by a parent. Visit blueribbonbaseball.com/ for dates and more information or contact Jen Leo with questions at 920-713-0673 or info@blueribbonbaseball.com.

Custom-Built Shelving Project Helpers

Flexible shifts through March

New Day Women's Center seeks volunteers to build floor-to-ceiling shelving for food pantry, hygiene products, and household goods storage. This will be secured to a brick wall. Please bring tools. Donations of lumber are welcome. Contact Angela Cheslock at 920-857-0628 or acheslock@newdaywc.org.

Workshop Facilitators

Flexible shifts

Newcap, Inc. seeks individuals or groups of volunteers ages 18 and older to do workshops for residents at their CABA (Center for Advocating, Believing and Achieving) shelter. They are looking for classes on cooking (on a budget), budgeting, parenting, art, etc. This is an effort to assist their residents in expanding their horizons and give them a strong foundation to succeed outside the shelter. Contact Diana Bushman at 920-373-0050 or dianabushman@newcap.org.

Thrift Store Volunteers

Weekdays, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. and 12:00-3:00 p.m.; Tuesdays and Wednesdays, 3:00-6:30 p.m.; Saturdays, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

De Pere Christian Outreach Thrift Store is looking for friendly, reliable volunteers ages 14 and older to help with various departments, including cashiering/bagging, intake (accepting and processing donations), clothing, domestics, households, toys, seasonal, books, and music and media. Contact Amy Murphy at 920-655-5758 or amurphydpc@outlook.com.

Digital File and Email Organizers

As volunteers are able

JOSHUA needs help organizing their Google drive and emails. They would like volunteers to go through old emails and label/categorize accordingly, as well as organize Google drive files for easier access. Contact Caitlin Haynes at 920-301-0022 or joshua4justice@gmail.com.

Volunteer Drivers

Flexible shifts depending on volunteers' schedule

Brown County Health and Human Services relies heavily on the assistance of their volunteer drivers (who must be age 18 or older). Those willing to help typically assist with transporting children and families safely to and from authorized visits and appointments. Examples of types of assistance include:

- Bringing children that reside in out-of-home care to scheduled visits with their parents
- Transporting a family lacking a safe/stable vehicle to an appointment
- Picking a child up from school.

Contact Judy Tilque at 920-621-4160 or judith.tilque@browncountywi.gov.

Outreach Volunteers

Various days and times

Want to help fight fraud in the Medicare system and protect beneficiaries from being victims of scams? If so, you're invited to join the Senior Medicare Patrol volunteer team. They educate Medicare beneficiaries, their families, and caregivers on how to prevent healthcare fraud and provide tips on how they can protect themselves. SMP volunteers staff booths at health fairs/senior expos/resource events or give small group presentations. Make an important difference in your community by stepping forward and taking a stand against fraud. Contact Molly Kelly at 888-818-2611 or molly.kelly@gwaar.org.

Side Walkers and/or Horse Leaders

Mondays, 10:30 a.m.-6:30 p.m.; Tuesdays, 11:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m.; Wednesdays, 9:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.; Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.-7:00 p.m.; second Friday of each month, 9:00-11:30 a.m.

Exceptional Equestrians needs volunteers ages 14 and older for two roles:

- Side walkers walk alongside the horse and rider and assist in keeping that rider safe during their session. Following direction from a therapist, side walkers may be asked to engage with their riders and assist in therapeutic activities unique to each rider. Side walkers also assist in sanitizing equipment after each session including helmets, belts, toys, and therapy equipment.
- Horse leaders control the equine during therapy and adaptive riding sessions and, with direction from the therapist or instructor, are responsible for maintaining a safe and effective session. Horse leaders must have previous horse experience through riding lessons, owning or leasing a horse, or other comparable experiences. Duties include leading the equine during sessions, grooming, tacking and untacking, bringing in or turning out horses, basic barn chores, and other duties as needed.

Contact Anna Splan at 920-347-3174 or asplan@exceptionalequestrians.org.

Mondays-Thursdays, 12:45-2:00 p.m.

Salvation Army of Greater Green Bay would like volunteers ages 16 and older to help serve groceries to those in need out of the pantry at 616 Union Ct., Green Bay. Please dress for the weather as you will be indoors and outdoors. Light lifting, bending, twisting, and standing required. Visit <https://btrr.im/57b7r> to sign up. Contact Michaela Koepp at 920-593-2375 or michaela.koepp@usc.salvationarmy.org.

Science and Engineering Kit Refurbishment

Flexible shifts between 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

As a volunteer ages 16 and older with the Einstein Project, you will be involved in refurbishing STEM kits for classroom use. By refurbishing these kits, you play a vital role in ensuring that students have access to high-quality educational resources. Your tasks may include cleaning, repairing, and organizing materials, ensuring that each kit is in excellent condition for students to learn from. Your attention to detail and dedication will directly contribute to the success of STEM education in our local schools. Contact Elizabeth Mayenschein at 920-884-8800 or elizabeth@einsteinproject.org.

Meal Volunteers for Women at Risk

11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

New Day Women's Center invites individuals ages 16 and older to assist with meals for at-risk women. Volunteers may choose between preparing a meal and staying to enjoy time with guests or dropping it off. Volunteers may also choose to send a delivery or give a gift card for a grocery store or restaurant. Contact Angela Cheslock at 920-857-0628 or acheslock@newdaywc.org.

Early Education Classroom Grandparents

Minimum five hours per week, flexible school-day hours

Encompass Early Education & Care is seeking volunteers ages 55 and older to be classroom grandparents, who make a difference in a child's life while also earning a tax-free hourly stipend. Volunteering takes place in an assigned classroom at one of seven five-star-rated Encompass centers in Brown County. The Foster Grandparent Program joins together two generations, enhancing the quality of life for seniors by giving them a sense of purpose, while also giving children a consistent grandparent figure who encourages them in social play and classroom activities. Volunteers need to meet limited income guidelines as required by AmeriCorps Seniors (the program's funding source). Contact Deb Johnson at 920-785-9710 or djohnson@encompasswi.org.

Community Arts Advocates

Various shifts

Mosaic Arts Inc. is looking for volunteers ages 14 and older to help grow their team of arts advocates. They host three large events per year and several smaller outreach events that require general volunteer help. They are also strengthening their board and subcommittees, seeking specifically those with fundraising skills, events management skills, and volunteer organizational skills. Have fun sharing your creativity and arts-related passions and ideas.

Contact Lori Cuene at 920-819-7716 or lmcuene@gmail.com.

Family Interaction Volunteers

Flexible shifts, but a three-month commitment is requested to limit the number of volunteers to whom children are exposed

Brown County Volunteer Services is seeking volunteers ages 18 and older to assist the department by providing supervision to children that are in out-of-home care during scheduled visits with their parents. The assigned volunteer is responsible for providing a safe, physically and emotionally secure environment during the visit. Visits typically occur at the Family Center or the department. The volunteer's time commitment is flexible and determined by the hours they want to work and the available assignments. Typically, the volunteer supervises the same family on the same day and time each week. Contact Judy Tilque at 920-621-4160 or judith.tilque@browncountywi.gov.

Shower Truck Assistants

Flexible shifts after March 1

Newcap Inc. is looking for volunteers ages 18 and older to man their shower truck. This is going to be a place for the unhoused to come and shower, and volunteers will help with cleaning and making sure clients are getting what they need. Contact Diana Bushman at 920-277-0616 or dianabushman@newcap.org.
