Big Brothers Big Sisters Mentors

Various shifts

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Wisconsin is seeking retirees who want to positively impact the next generation of students. Mentors (Bigs) meet with their mentees (Littles) in two ways:

- Community-based Bigs meet a few times a month to expose their Little to community activities, go for walks in the park, or enjoy an ice cream cone together.
- Site-based Bigs meet during a Little's lunch and recess once a week at school to read, play games, or do a craft.

Bigs get to explore the world through a child's eyes, share their values with a younger generation, and enjoy being a kid again. If you enjoy the company of children and want to have fun, being a Big might be just the thing for you. Visit bbsnew.org/be-a-big to learn more or contact Keren Cotter with questions at 920-615-9306 or kerenc@bbsnew.org.

Unity Resale Shoppe East

Flexible shifts

Unity, a non-profit provider of nonmedical home care, palliative care, hospice care, and grief support, is seeking fun and friendly volunteers ages 18 and older to fulfill daily operations of a new, second resale shop that will open in summer 2024 in East De Pere. Volunteers are needed to start orientation in June or July. Duties include receiving, sorting, pricing, staging, and merchandising items, along with greeting customers and cashiering. Proceeds from the shop directly support Unity's compassionate care programs offered throughout Northeast Wisconsin. If you are interested in joining their tremendous team and working in an inspiring environment for an organization that provides the highest level of care to patients and families during life's most precious times, they'd like to hear from you. Visit unityhospice.org/resale-shoppe to learn more or contact Kelly Lautenslager or Alison Bantes with questions at 920-338-1111 or volunteers@unityhospice.org.

Refugee Resettlement Assistance

Shifts: 8:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Fundraising Liaison

Various shifts

New Day Women's Center is looking for a passionate advocate for women's needs who is age 16 or older and who can assist in identifying, organizing, and facilitating fundraising events, grant opportunities, and donor relations. Experience is a plus, but passion for the cause is foremost. Contact Angela Cheslock at 920-857-2025 or acheslock@newdaywc.org.

Side Walkers and/or Horse Leaders

Mondays, 10:30 a.m.-7:00 p.m.; Tuesdays, 11:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m.; Wednesdays, 9:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.; Thursdays, 10:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.

Exceptional Equestrians needs volunteers ages 14 and older for two roles:

- Horse leaders control the equine during therapy and adaptive riding sessions and, with direction from the therapist or instructor, are responsible for maintaining a safe and effective session. Horse leaders must have previous horse experience through riding lessons, owning or leasing a horse, or other comparable experiences. Duties include leading the equine during sessions, grooming, tacking and untacking, bringing in or turning out horses, basic barn chores, and other duties as needed.
- Side walkers walk alongside the horse and rider and assist in keeping that rider safe during their session. Following direction from a therapist, side walkers may be asked to engage with their riders and assist in therapeutic activities unique to each rider. Side walkers also assist in sanitizing equipment after each session, including helmets, belts, toys, and therapy equipment.

Contact Anna Splan at 920-347-3174 or asplan@exceptionalequestrians.org.

Baseball Game Assistants

Various shifts before and during home games

Blue Ribbons Baseball would like volunteers to assist in several areas: field prep (about three hours before game time), help with batting practice, concessions, grilling, ticketing, on-field entertainment, and more. Volunteers who are minors must be accompanied by a parent. Visit blueribbonbaseball.com/ for dates and more information or contact Jen Leo with questions at 920-713-0673 or info@blueribbonbaseball.com.

Friendly Hospice Visitors

Flexible shifts; volunteers typically visit with a patient once a week for 1-2 hours

Volunteers are the HEART of hospice. Aurora Home Hospice is looking for kind, caring individuals ages 18 and older to provide companionship to their patients in end-of-life care. Patients are in care facilities and homes throughout the Green Bay area, so there is likely a person in need conveniently close to you. A visit brightens their day and lightens your heart. As a hospice visit volunteer you may:

- Provide active listening and a caring presence
- Read a book or listen to their favorite music
- Play games or take walks as they are able
- Participate in life review or just hear their stories
- Be present while a caregiver takes a break
- Remember special days
- Laugh with them or just hold their hand while they rest

Training is provided so you can be confident and comfortable in doing an excellent job as a companion volunteer. No patient cares are involved. You will develop soft social skills such as active listening and empathetic companionship in a health care setting. This can reflect well on a resume. Safety is the top priority, so a background check and health history will need to be completed. All Aurora employees, including volunteers, are required to be vaccinated for flu during flu season. If you are interested in doing something that will give back and be a heart-expanding experience, contact Lexi Pirman at 920-627-5306 or lexi.pirman@aah.org.

Outreach Volunteers

Various days and times

Want to help fight fraud in the Medicare system and protect beneficiaries from being victims of scams? If so, and if you are age 50 or older, you're invited to join the Senior Medicare Patrol volunteer team. They educate Medicare beneficiaries, their families, and caregivers on how to prevent healthcare fraud and provide tips on how they can protect themselves. They do this through outreach. SMP volunteers staff booths at health fairs/senior expos/resource events or give small group presentations. You can make an important difference in your community by stepping forward and taking a stand against fraud. Contact Molly Kelly at 888-818-2611 or molly.kelly@gwaar.org.

Giraffe Feeding Experience

Daily, 10:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and 2:00-4:30 p.m.

NEW Zoo & Adventure Park would like volunteers to assist guests with feeding the giraffes. Individuals must have experience with handling cash and making change. Kids ages 8-15 must be accompanied by a chaperone. Contact Ashley Quealy at 920-662-2419 or ashley.quealy@browncountywi.gov.

Refugee Welcome Kits

Can be dropped off Monday-Thursday from 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Catholic Charities reminds you that many refugees come to the United States with next to nothing and invites volunteers to help them rebuild their lives by putting together a Welcome Kit. These kits will provide them with the essentials they need to help them build again with hope and honor. For a list of the essentials, contact Tara below or see the Volunteer Center's Facebook post from May 24. Drop off location: Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Green Bay, 1825 Riverside Dr. (Bona Hall), Green Bay. Please contact them in advance to schedule a delivery of larger items/furniture. Contact Tara Degrave at 920-272-8234 or tdegrave@gbdioc.org.

Pet Therapy

Various days, half-hour visits

New Day Women's Center is seeking calm, well-trained, friendly dogs for pet therapy at their facility. There are many physical and mental health benefits for their guests when they connect and interact with animals. No certification or license is needed for pet therapy dogs. Contact Angela Cheslock at 920-857-2025 or acheslock@newdaywc.org.

Farmers' Market on Broadway

Wednesdays through September 25; shifts through August: 2:45-5:30 p.m. (beverage tent first shift), 5:15-8:00 p.m. (beverage tent second shift), 3:00-8:00 p.m. (info booth), 12:30-3:00 p.m. (set-up crew), and 7:45-9:30 p.m. (tear-down crew)

On Broadway, Inc. would like volunteers for a variety of roles for this weekly event:

- Beverage tent - Serve and pour alcoholic beverages; requires cash- and card-handling.
- Info booth - Sit under the info booth tent and assist marketgoers, hand out maps, and help with other general information.
- Set-up crew - Assist with set-up of the market (tents, garbage cans, banners, etc.); this is outdoor work and lifting is required.
- Tear-down crew - Assist with clean-up of the market (garbage, tents, banners, etc.); this is outdoor work and lifting is required.

Must be 18 or older for beverage tent shifts. Contact Betsy Sorensen at 920-569-3489 or betsy@onbroadway.org.

Child Care for Family Classes

Tuesdays and Wednesdays, 9:15-11:15 a.m.; Wednesdays, 5:45-7:45 p.m. (one hour extra at the end of all shifts for clean-up, if available/willing)

You Belong's family classes for ages newborn to kindergarten focus on caring for families with littles. Their play-based learning helps children grow alongside their peers while parents get to connect with other parents and work on being the best caregiver and parent they can be. Their instructors create a supportive environment where families are encouraged to play together and participate in crafts, circle time with songs and stories, and play-based learning. Volunteers ages 13 and older are needed to help play with their children ages 1-6 while parents connect. Contact Amy Behrend at 920-740-3739 or amy@youbelongwi.org.

Shower Truck Assistants

Flexible shifts

Newcap Inc. is looking for volunteers ages 18 and older to man their shower truck. This is going to be a place for the unhoused to come and shower, and volunteers will help with cleaning and making sure clients are getting what they need. Contact Diana Bushman at 920-277-0616 or dianabushman@newcap.org.

Early Education Classroom Grandparents

Flexible school-day hours, minimum five hours per week

Encompass Early Education & Care is seeking volunteers ages 55 and older to be classroom grandparents, who are volunteers who make a difference in a child's life while also earning a tax-free stipend. This opportunity is available at one of seven five-star-rated Encompass centers in Brown County. The Foster Grandparent Program connects two generations, enriching seniors' lives with a sense of purpose and providing children ages infant-4 with a consistent grandparent figure who supports them in social play and classroom activities. Volunteers must meet income requirements set by AmeriCorps Seniors, the program's funding source. Contact Deb Johnson at 920-785-9710 or djohnson@encompasswi.org.

Gardening Volunteers

Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, 8:00-10:00 a.m., 10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m., or 8:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Volunteers are invited to join the horticulture team at Green Bay Botanical Garden. Don't let a lack of gardening experience hold you back. Their horticulture staff will work alongside you, making sure you are comfortable with your task and answering any questions you may have. No tools are required, just bring gardening gloves. They have successfully turned many brown thumbs green. Individuals ages 12-15 can volunteer with a parent or guardian.

Contact Kate Martin at 920-593-5686 or volunteer@gbbg.org.

Dementia Community Education

Flexible shifts, 2-4 hours per month; activities will take place during weekday business hours

The ADRC of Brown County's dementia care specialist is committed to working with community partners to ensure Brown County has dementia-friendly and dementia-capable communities. This volunteer, aged 18 or older, works in conjunction with the dementia care specialist to aid in outreach and community presentations in Brown County. Responsibilities and duties:

- Conduct outreach activities in Brown County communities to help facilitate dementia-friendly community initiatives
- Assist with marketing efforts
- Present a variety of dementia education topics as identified by Heather Flick, MS
- Present Dementia Friends and Purple Angel programs
- Must have a passion for dementia-related topics and brain health
- Comfortable leading groups of various sizes and backgrounds
- Comfortable presenting in person or virtually

Donation Processors

Weekdays, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. and 12:00-4:00 p.m.

Community Benefit Tree is looking for volunteers ages 13 and older to help with checking, cleaning, and marking store codes on donated items, then placing and organizing items in the thrift store. Volunteers are also needed to help check shoppers out. Contact Kim Van Berkel at 920-422-1919 or office@communitybenefittree.org.

Bereavement Callers

Flexible shifts

Volunteering is the heart of hospice. Do you have a few hours a month that you could share with someone? If a rewarding volunteer opportunity is what you are looking for, this is it. Aurora at Home Hospice is looking for kind, compassionate, and social volunteers ages 18 or older to call families who lost a loved one on Aurora hospice. Bereavement callers provide support by calling just to provide a listening ear. There is no hands-on care, and you have the ability to call patients from the comfort of your own home. The bereavement call program is designed to maximize the role of the volunteer in assisting families who have lost a loved one. Training is provided. Contact Lexi Pirman at 920-627-5306 or lexi.pirman@aah.org.

Field Trip Support Crew

Weekday mornings in May, September, and October from 8:45-10:00 a.m. (approximately); exact dates vary based on needs

Heritage Hill State Historical Park invites volunteers ages 18 and older to help field trip visitors get their day off to a good start.
