August 3 — Packers Family Night Ticket Scanning

Saturday, August 3: 4:30-7:30 p.m.

Hand of Hope is looking for volunteer groups to perform ticket scanning (minimum age is 16). Groups check in with the group supervisor, then proceed to their assigned gate. PMI staff or a supervisor will be available to guide you. Groups typically stay together at a gate, but occasionally may be separated. A supervisor will provide training using a handheld ticket scanning device and will handle any issues. Some gates also have self-scanning pedestals. Volunteers are encouraged to thank the fans for coming and be engaged in the fun. You'll be standing the entire shift. Groups normally stay 30-45 minutes after kick off and are then released by their gate supervisor. Volunteers must wear tan or black pants, no shorts or capris. Any shirt is fine. Water, red polos/jackets, ponchos, and sunscreen are provided.

Contact Kristi King at 920-265-9708 or packer@reachingthehandofhope.com.

August 7 and 20 — Volunteer Virtual Information Sessions

Wednesday, August 7: 9:30 a.m. OR Tuesday, August 20: 5:00 p.m.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Wisconsin is a collection of passionate volunteers who want to build up the next generation of young people in our community. They are committed to providing caring, positive mentoring relationships to area youth, and they want you to join them for a 30-minute virtual presentation about who they are and what they do. This is a no-pressure time to ask questions and learn more. Littles are voluntarily enrolled and range from ages 6-18. This means that they have young ones, tweens, and teens who want to have a mentor. What better time to impact a kid than when they are asking for it? Bigs are ages 18 and older and are everyday people just like you. They are engaging, caring, good listeners, and willing to give a little bit of time and energy to impact a child. They are empty nesters, recent graduates, singles or couples, retirees, and from all backgrounds and experiences. Visit <https://bit.ly/4cH87L9> to sign up for August 7 or <https://bit.ly/4cMx4VC> to sign up for August 20 or contact Keren Cotter with questions at 920-615-9306 or kerenc@bbbsnew.org.

- Provide a culturally appropriate welcome meal
- Distribute seasonally appropriate clothing for work, school, and every day
- Assist in transporting individuals to initial appointments (job interviews, doctor appointments, school appointments)
- Assist with completing public benefits applications such as Medicaid, SNAP, etc.
- Assist with enrollment in an English language program

Volunteers will sign up for a 90-day contract to help a refugee family. Anything beyond that is up to the volunteer. Contact Chelsey Martinez at 920-272-8322 or cmartinez@gbdioc.org.

Farmers' Market on Broadway

Wednesdays through September 25; shifts through August: 2:45-5:30 p.m. (beverage tent first shift), 5:15-8:00 p.m. (beverage tent second shift), 3:00-8:00 p.m. (info booth), 12:30-3:00 p.m. (set-up crew), and 7:45-9:30 p.m. (tear-down crew)

On Broadway, Inc. would like volunteers for a variety of roles for this weekly event:

- Beverage tent - Serve and pour alcoholic beverages; requires cash- and card-handling.
- Info booth - Sit under the info booth tent and assist marketgoers, hand out maps, and help with other general information.
- Set-up crew - Assist with set-up of the market (tents, garbage cans, banners, etc.); this is outdoor work and lifting is required.
- Tear-down crew - Assist with clean-up of the market (garbage, tents, banners, etc.); this is outdoor work and lifting is required.

Must be 18 or older for beverage tent shifts. Contact Betsy Sorensen at 920-569-3489 or betsy@onbroadway.org.

Girls on the Run Fall Season

3:30-5:00 p.m. twice a week during the 10-week season (September-November); training will be provided through August on various days and times

Girls on the Run is a youth development program that combines social/emotional learning with physical activities. Trained volunteer coaches, ages 16 and older, are needed to lead a small group of participants using a research-based curriculum during the 10-week program. Practices are held twice a week, and two coaches are present at each practice. Contact Kathy Olson at 920-209-5866 or kathy.olson@girlsontherun.org.

Big Brothers Big Sisters Mentors

Various shifts

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Wisconsin is seeking adults ages 18 and older who want to positively impact the next generation of kids. Bigs help their Littles to improve their social skills, develop their sense of self-confidence, set exciting goals for their future, and expand their world through introduction of new hobbies and adventures. Bigs also have fun. While most adults don't take enough time to play, Bigs have the unique opportunity to view the world through a child's eyes, reconnect with their own sense of childlike wonder and joy, and have tons of fun while exploring their community. Whether you enjoy ziplining and kayaking, throwing a ball at the park, cooking and baking, or sitting down for a craft at a local coffee shop, there is a child who wants to meet you. Bigs meet with their Littles in a few ways:

- Community-based Bigs meet a few times a month to expose their Little to community activities, go for walks in the park, or enjoy an ice cream cone together.
- Site-based Bigs meet during a Little's lunch and recess once a week at school to read, play games, or do a craft.
- The Big Club Bigs meet with their Little for two hours a month for facilitated games and activities.

It takes little to be a Big. If you enjoy the company of children and want to have fun, being a Big might be just the thing for you. Check out the available mentoring programs at bbsnew.org/be-a-big or contact Keren Cotter with questions at 920-615-9306 or kerenc@bbsnew.org.

Bread Run Drivers

Alternating Fridays, 6:30-8:30 a.m.

The Salvation Army of Greater Green Bay seeks volunteers ages 21 and older to pick up donated food items from various sites in the Green Bay area. Drivers would be picking up donations and loading/unloading the vehicle as needed. Volunteers must be background-checked, trained, and have a motor vehicle license/check prior to participating in this activity. Location: Salvation Army Corps, 626 Union Ct., Green Bay. Contact Michaela Koepp at 920-593-2375 or michaela.koepp@usc.salvationarmy.org.

Career Closet

Tuesdays-Thursdays, 10:30 a.m.-2:00 p.m. and 2:00-5:00 p.m.

YWCA Greater Green Bay is looking for volunteers ages 18 and older to assist women in finding career clothes and assembling outfits for work. Duties include sorting, tagging, and displaying clothing. Must have a love of fashion. Contact Catherine Sendelbach at 920-432-5581 or csendelbach@ywcagreenbay.org.

Transport Drivers

Various shifts

The Wisconsin Humane Society-Green Bay Campus is looking for volunteers ages 18 and older to help transport animals between their Green Bay and Door County campuses (Sturgeon Bay). Visit www.wihumane.org/volunteer/greenbay to learn more about their program and how to become a volunteer or contact Katie Gut with questions at 920-469-3110 or kgut@wihumane.org.

Outreach Volunteers

Various day-time shifts

Want to help fight fraud in the Medicare system and protect beneficiaries from being victims of scams? If so, and if you are age 50 or older, you're invited to join the Senior Medicare Patrol volunteer team. They educate Medicare beneficiaries, their families, and caregivers on how to prevent healthcare fraud and provide tips on how they can protect themselves. They do this through outreach. SMP volunteers staff booths at health fairs/senior expos/resource events or give small group presentations. You can make an important difference in your community by stepping forward and taking a stand against fraud. Contact Molly Kelly at 888-818-2611 or molly.kelly@gwaar.org.

Facebook and Website Assistant

Can be done at home as time permits

The Mediation Center of Green Bay seeks a volunteer to consistently post events and notices on their Facebook page and website to inform the public of the good work they do. Contact Vicki Marotz at 920-438-7067 or director@mediationggb.org.

Fundraising Liaison

Various shifts

New Day Women's Center is looking for a passionate advocate for women's needs who is age 16 or older and who can assist in identifying, organizing, and facilitating fundraising events, grant opportunities, and donor relations. Experience is a plus, but passion for the cause is foremost. Contact Angela Cheslock at 920-857-2025 or acheslock@newdaywc.org.

Side Walkers and Horse Leaders

Various Monday-Thursday shifts

Exceptional Equestrians needs volunteers ages 14 and older for two roles:

- Horse leaders control the equine during therapy and adaptive riding sessions and, with direction from the therapist or instructor, are responsible for maintaining a safe and effective session. Horse leaders must have previous horse experience through riding lessons, owning or leasing a horse, or other comparable experiences. Duties include leading the equine during sessions, grooming, tacking and untacking, bringing in or turning out horses, basic barn chores, and other duties as needed.
- Side walkers walk alongside the horse and rider and assist in keeping that rider safe during their session. Following direction from a therapist, side walkers may be asked to engage with their riders and assist in therapeutic activities unique to each rider. Side walkers also assist in sanitizing equipment after each session, including helmets, belts, toys, and therapy equipment.

Contact Bekah Morrow at 920-347-3174 or bmorrow@exceptionalequestrians.org.

Early Education Classroom Grandparents

Flexible school-day hours, minimum five hours per week

Encompass Early Education & Care is seeking volunteers ages 55 and older to be classroom grandparents, who are volunteers who make a difference in a child's life while also earning a tax-free stipend. This opportunity is available at one of seven five-star-rated Encompass centers in Brown County. The Foster Grandparent Program connects two generations, enriching seniors' lives with a sense of purpose and providing children ages infant-4 with a consistent grandparent figure who supports them in social play and classroom activities. Volunteers must meet income requirements set by AmeriCorps Seniors, the program's funding source. Contact Deb Johnson at 920-785-9710 or djohnson@encompasswi.org.

Refugee Welcome Kits

Can be dropped off Monday-Thursday from 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Catholic Charities reminds you that many refugees come to the United States with next to nothing and invites volunteers to help them rebuild their lives by putting together a Welcome Kit. These kits will provide them with the essentials they need to help them build again with hope and honor. For a list of the essentials, contact Tara below or see the Volunteer Center's Facebook post from May 24. Drop off location: Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Green Bay, 1825 Riverside Dr. (Bona Hall), Green Bay. Please contact them in advance to schedule a delivery of larger items/furniture. Contact Tara Degrave at 920-272-8234 or tdegrave@gbdioc.org.

Volunteer Ombudsmen

Flexible daily shifts between 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m.

The Board on Aging and Long Term Care Volunteer Ombudsman Program would like volunteer ombudsmen ages 18 and older who will promote and advocate for the rights of individuals living in nursing homes. They make unannounced visits to designated facilities to interact with residents. They observe general conditions of the facility, talk with the residents about their rights, and work with residents to communicate concerns and complaints by providing support and empowerment. Volunteer ombudsmen assist residents by being their voice. Training and ongoing support is provided. If you'd like to improve the lives of the elderly, they would love to meet you. Contact Andie Grassl at 608-246-7023 or andrea.grassl@wisconsin.gov.

Landscaping

Anytime between 7:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.

Do you enjoy plants, flowers, and weeding or have an eye for what the border should look like around a house for curb appeal? Ecumenical Partnership for Housing needs you. Go to the home on your own schedule and work as you are able on tasks like trimming bushes, cutting trees, pulling weeds, thinning shrubs, planting new flowers, etc. They have about 17 homes in need of help. Volunteers under age 18 must be accompanied by an adult. Contact Lacy Hansen at 920-655-6323 or lacyh@ephgb.org.

Shooting Hoops Check-In Table

Tuesdays and Thursdays, 12:00-1:30 p.m.

The Salvation Army of Greater Green Bay seeks volunteers ages 18 and older to help check in and out basketballs and have participants sign waivers and rule agreements. This is a sitting position.
